

I believe that the current Do Not Call Registry law in NJ should stay the way it is. I enjoy not having my phone ring all the time. Especially when we are trying to enjoy dinner. Until this law went into effect, we were seriously considering turning our phone off. So what if the telemarketing companies are complaining. They don't listen to the people who they call, when ask to be removed from their Do Not Call list. (i.e. you receive a telemarketer call one day, you ask them to remove you from their list and they say ok; the very next day the same company calls just a different person and they have no records of you asking to be removed from the list.) Final Note: Let the law the way it is!!